

FROM THE "A" TRAIN TO THE A-LIST. WHO'S MAKING IT HAPPEN IN HARLEM

FEBRUARY 2008

DANIEL BERNARD ROUMAIN

"Daniel Bernard Roumain is a musician and a multigenre artist—one of those creative individuals who doesn't believe in categories. So whether it's classical or hip-hop, musical or visual, live or YouTube, Roumain is someone who is constantly mashing and mixing media. The violin is his primary instrument, but with his genre-bending approach, he's done lots of fantastic work with everyone from Philip Glass to Bill T. Jones to young people's orchestras."

MARCIA GAY HARDEN

"Marcia Gay Harden, of course, is an Oscar-winning actress [for 2000's Pollock] who's been living up here for about five years now. In a community like Harlem, when someone such as Marcia Gay Harden moves in, people tend to talk about it. I've never met her, but I believe that she lives in a house that was recently renovated, which puts her in the category of the many pioneers who have been reclaiming property in the neighborhood."
